2020

TWO-FACED MAZE OF FORTUNE

EGG OF REINCARNATION

RE-RUN

BUG JUGGLER

HOT or COLD

WISFUL THINKING

RAT RACE

YIZOR THE PSYCHIC ROBOT

I'm seeking a publisher for my Fortune-Telling Mazes books. I self-published the series for three years but only sold a handful of copies, so I'm shelving the project until I can give it the treatment it deserves. Below is the blurb from my Amazon listing:

Use this book as a calendar and daily planner. Bookmark your way through it to keep track of the date, and flip ahead to make reminder notes.

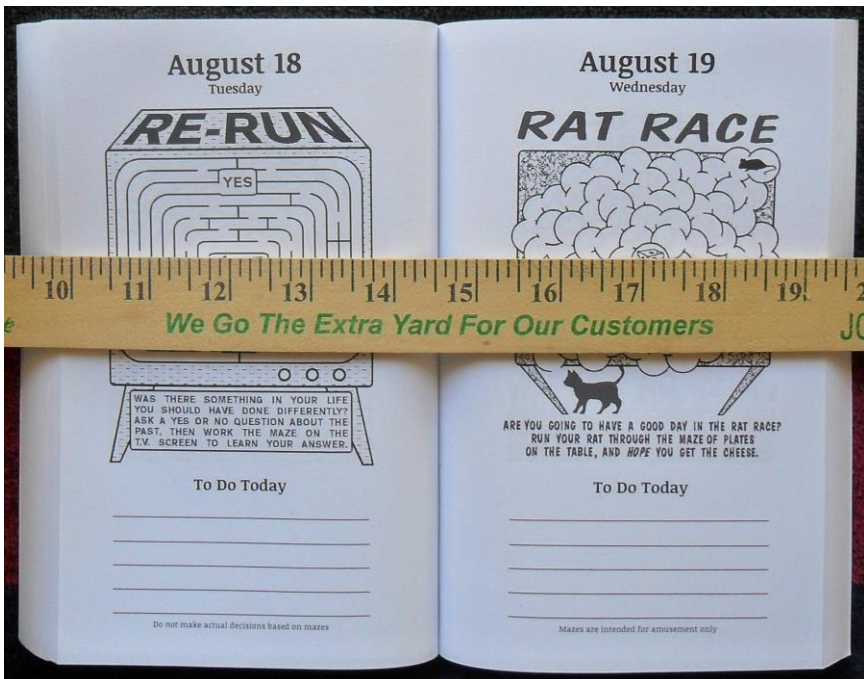

And work a maze every day. Each of the eight titles has a dozen or more maze variations, to keep you guessing.

Unlike other books, you won't put this one away on a shelf after a quick read. You'll use it every day. And the mazes are large enough to trace with a fingertip instead of a pen, so multiple people can work them. Keep the book on the dining table for your family to enjoy, or on your desk at work, or take it along in the carpool . . .

I didn't promote the books, and now I'm looking for a publisher that can promote and distribute.

Interior of a book

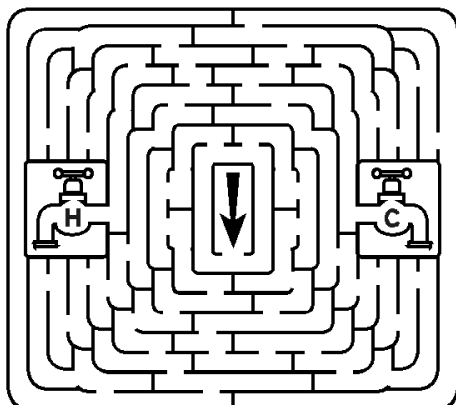

I have interior pdf work for the series complete up to the 2026 edition (complete except for the assignment of ISBNs). It shouldn't be hard to update the files. An eye-catching cover will be needed.

HOT or COLD

THINK OF SOMETHING YOU WANT, then work the maze of plumbing below. If you arrive at the HOT faucet, you are getting close to the thing you desire.

Click HERE for a sample of the 2020 upload file (a book I never released). The books are 5"x8" and an inch thick. The pages in the file are shifted L/R/L for guttering.

I want to see this series published by an established company that can properly promote and distribute it. I own the FortuneTellingMazes.com domain name, if that will help. Contact me if you're interested. Serious inquiries only.
